

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

---

DORIAN WILLIAMS,

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER

MR. KARTMAN, et al.,

Case No. 19-cv-118-slc

Defendants.

---

Pro se plaintiff Dorian Williams is proceeding in this lawsuit against Wisconsin Secure Program Facility employees on Eighth Amendment deliberate indifference and First Amendment retaliation claims. Among those claims are Eighth Amendment deliberate indifference and First Amendment retaliation claims against defendant Sergeant Saylor for this defendant's handling of Williams' need for medical care on September 20. On July 30, 2020, defendants filed a motion for summary judgment with respect to Williams' claims against Saylor, for Williams' failure to exhaust his administrative remedies with respect to these claims. (Dkt. #25.) The court set August 20, 2020, as plaintiff's opposition deadline. That deadline has passed, and Williams has not responded to defendants' motion or contacted the court seeking an extension of that deadline. His failure to respond to defendants' motion, or to take any other action indicating that he is preparing an opposition, suggests that he concedes the merit of defendants' motion. Nonetheless, I will give Williams one more chance to respond to defendants' motion: he now has until September 21, 2020, to file an opposition to defendants' motion for summary judgment. His failure to meet this deadline will cause me to grant defendants' motion as unopposed and dismiss Williams' claims against defendant Saylor without prejudice.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff Dorian Williams may have until September 21, 2020, to file a response to defendants' motion for summary judgment. If Williams does not respond by that date, I will grant defendants' motion as unopposed and dismiss Williams' claims in this lawsuit against defendant Saylor without prejudice.

Dated this 31st day of August, 2020.
